Saint Columba's
Parish Hall

Saint Columba's,
The Berkeley Memorial Chapel
55 Vaucluse Avenue
Middletown, Rhode Island

ST. COLUMBA'S PARISH HALL, located through the gates of the Chapel yard, welcomes you to a serene sanctuary of beautiful trees, gently sloping lawns and gardens. The graveyard contains headstones dating back to the 1800's. The grounds, which resemble an English countryside, are tucked quietly away in the little borough of Middletown, Rhode Island. Newport, a very historic seaport located only two miles away, makes arranging accommodations for long distance travelers convenient.

Our Parish Hall is a perfect place for special occasions where a natural setting offers guests privacy, peace and quiet. Wedding receptions, social events, business meetings, conferences, community service and charitable functions are welcomed.

The Parish Hall design won a Merit Award from the RI Chapter of the AIA for "Excellence in Design." The Great Hall, which accommodates up to 120 guests, is surrounded by floor to ceiling windows and is anchored at the western end by a cathedral height fieldstone fireplace topped with a lovely stained-glass window.

Use of the interior of the Parish Hall can include the vestibule, Great Hall, commercial grade kitchen, two classrooms, conference room, nursery and restrooms. Events that include seated dining and dancing reduce capacity to 80 people.

Use of the terrace is welcome during summer months. Tents are permitted on the grounds. Requests must be submitted at least 60 days prior to the event. Smoking inside the Parish Hall is not permitted.
